

BAD FOR THE OPERATORS

Storm Prevented Chicago Gamblers From Getting Reports From Other Centers.

SENT WIRES AROUND WORLD

Fast Trains Were Employed by the Anxious, But Generally the Expedients Resorted to Were Without Much Success.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Cut off from the east by the storm's destruction of telegraph and telephone wires, Chicago brokers have resorted to extraordinary expedients in their effort to establish business with their New York offices.

Messages were sent around the world by way of Yokohama but no replies were received in time to be of value for the day's trading. In other instances messengers were despatched to New York on the 20 hour flyer which leaves Chicago just after noon, the hope being that the fast train would be able to reach the metropolis before the opening of the stock exchange today. Still another expedient was to telegraph orders to Rochester or Buffalo, to which cities wires were in operation and from which the orders were mailed to New York city. It was the most complete tie up of wire service that the Stock exchange has known in the last 16 years. There was no time during the day when any broker knew the condition of the New York market at the moment, quotations being so far behind as to be valueless.

ARTIFICIAL EYES.

They Must be Renewed About Once a Year.

The trade in artificial eyes is extensive not only from the number of people who need them, but also from the fact that they only last for about a year in consequence of the action of the secretions of the eyes upon the enamel.

The process of manufacture involves eight distinct operations, which call into play considerable artistic ability and patient skill, and for this female workers seem especially adapted. The enamel has first to be fused, then the globe is blown and colored, after which the shaping, tempering, and polishing have to be attended to. The minutest details, even to the coral veins on the sclerotic coat and the broken colored iris, are so faithfully reproduced that the imitation can rarely be detected save in times of great emotion.

Blooded Horse Resents Insult.

Orange, N. J. Nov. 15.—Blue Boy, a fine pacer owned by John P. Kernan, a well known horseman of South Orange, yesterday resented an insult offered by John Beach, colored, and as a result Beach is laid up for repairs. The man was cleaning the horse, and while doing so amused himself by spitting in the horse's face. The animal stood this once or twice, but at last retaliated by reaching forward and biting Beach on the lip, lacerating it severely.

Trials of Motherhood

285 Broad Street, PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 15, 1904.

I suffered for nine years with ovarian troubles making life a burden to myself as well as to my family. During that time I had two miscarriages and although we longed for a child to bless our home this seemed impossible. I had constant racking bearing-down pains in the pelvic organs and a pulling through my limbs with frequent headaches. I felt sick at my stomach and vomited frequently and no medicine helped me until I tried Wine of Cardui.

Then my general health improved, the pains gradually lessened and after 16 weeks I was well. I am now the happy mother of a boy eighteen months old and my husband joins me in sending heartfelt thanks to you for your splendid medicine. Without it I would have been a childless, instead of a happy and well mother.

Mrs. Gertrude Nirdlinger, CHAPLAIN, ST. ANNE'S ASSOCIATION.

WINE of CARDUI

Wine of Cardui is the most successful menstrual regulator. By regulating menstruation, Wine of Cardui banishes inflammation from the entire female organism and the strengthened ligaments bring the organs back to their proper place. This is what Wine of Cardui did for Mrs. Nirdlinger. It banished the racking pains and burning inflammation and brought her relief. She was restored to health and strength and gives Wine of Cardui the credit of making her able to become a happy mother. This medicine equips a woman for every duty of wifehood and motherhood. There are many suffering women who think that health can never be theirs because they cannot secure the services of a great specialist, but we want to say right here that while Mrs. Nirdlinger lives in Philadelphia, a great medical center, she depended on Wine of Cardui for a cure and she was cured. This same medicine is within your reach. Will you take it?
